

Past Due ChargesDescription

SaskTel may assess a surcharge on overdue customer accounts where any amount remains unpaid for a period of one month after the date of the bill.

Rates and Charges

Wireline accounts carrying a balance forward at billing time, or wireless accounts with charges older than 35 days are subject to a late payment charge of 2.9% per month, compounded monthly (40.92% annual equivalent). Such late payment charge is subject to change. Late payment charges apply to residential as well as business customers.
